HARRISON'S OUTING.

He Issues a Proclamation on the Live Stock Question and Signs Several Bills.

To Whom It May Concern:

"Whereas, It has been represented to me that, by reason of the drought which has prevailed in the Indian territory and in the adjoining states, the execution of my proclamation of February 17, 1890, requiring the removal of all live stock from the Cheroke outlet on or before October 1st, would work great hardship and loss not only to the owners of stock herdmen on the strip but to the owners of cattle in the adjoining states, and

Whereas, The owners of all cattle now herded upon the outlet have submitted to me a proposition in writing whereby they agree to remove one half of their stock from the outlet on or before November 1st, and the residue thereof and all their property and employes on or before December 1st next, and to abandon all claims in said outlet. Now, therefore I, Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States, do give notice and the limit heretofore fixed for the removal of the live stock herded upon said outlet is extended to November 1st as to one-half thereof and to December 1st next as to the residue thereon and to all property and employes."

The president this morning approved the anti-lottery and river and harbor appropriation bills. He also attached his approval to the resolutions adopted by congress in eulogy of Hon. Samuel J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, and David Wilbur and N. W. Nutting, of New York. The president has recognized Francisco Lambertinghi as counsul general for Italy. He has also sent to Washington the following nominations: John A. Riner, of Wyoming, to be United States district judge for Wyoming; Benjamin F. Fowler, of Wyoming, to be United States district attorney for the district of Wyoming, and John H. Rankin, of Wyoming, to be United States marshal for the district of Wyoming; second Lieutenant C. L. Potter, corps of engineers, to be first lieutenant vice Spencer, resigned; additional second Lieutenant Chester Harding to be second lieutenant corps of engineers vice Potter, promoted.

Mr. Tibbett, of the executive office, who brought to the president the anti-lottery and river and harbor bills, reports that the executive mansion having been undergoing extensive repairs, is yet uninhabitable and that it would be imprudent for the president and his family to remain in the house permanently for some time to come. In these circumstances the president will remain here until some time next week; then if compelled to return to Washinhton before the house is habitable, he will probably accept the hospitality of Postmaster General Wannamaker or some one of the other cabinet officers until he can take his family to the White house.

Mr. Boyd has arranged to give the president another day's outing. To-morrow at 9 a. m. a special train with the president and members of his family will leave here for Clearfield, Housdale, Philipsburg and Carwinsville, which towns are located in the the bituminous coal regions. The presidential party will travel in Vice-President Thompson's private car. Upon reaching the coal fields the miners will be excused from duty, and a parade of several thousand miners will pass in review of the executive. The trip will occupy the entire day. The arrangements for the president's reception and entertainment by the citizens of the coal region will be under the immediate supervision of Hon. Wm. H. Dill, of Clearfield, Pa. The presidential family are the only guests left in the cottage, and the hotel will be deserted by night. To morrow morning it will close its doors. Secretary Halford's family will return to Washington some time to-morrow.

FIRE AMONG INSANE.

A LONG FAST.

A Woman in Allentown Goes 172 Days Without Food.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Adam Wuchtler, of White Hall, seven miles from here, has passed the 172d day since she has tasted food or drink in any form. This is vouched for by her attending physicians. The unfortunate woman's fast does not arise from choice on her part, inasmuch as she is afflicted with a malignant cancer of the pharynx, which prevents her from swallowing either solid or liquid food, although she craves it constantly. The doctors cannot account for her wonderful tenacity of life, except that she is possessed of a phenominally strong constitution. Her condition is gradually worse, her lower extremities are cold like those of a dead person, and her vitality is at an exceedingly low ebb.

MANAGER M'CRACKEN.

Higher Honors Come to a Fort Wayne Man in Railroad Life.

An official circular has been issued, stating that J. K. McCracken has been appointed general manager of the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas railroad with headquarters at Louisville.

This railroad was built by the McCrackens and is about 200 miles long. The many friends in this city of both of the above gentlemen, will be pleased to learn of their appoinments.

EVERYTHING QUIET

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A special from the City of Guatemala says everything is quiet here now. The officers and men of the United States war vessels are pretty well tired of their stay and view with satisfaction the orders they have received to leave. The Thetis leaves San Jose next week for Nicaraguay, touching at LaUnion, Salvador and Ammapa, Honduras. The Ranger goes from here to Punta Araras, Costa Rico and from thence to Panama.

THE SABBATH.

The St. Louis Presbytery Condemns the World's Fair Committee.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 19.—The St. Louis Presbytery this morning passed resolutions condeming the action of the World's fair commissioners for voting to keep the exhibition open on Sunday. The resolutions claim that keeping the exhibition open on Sunday is in violation of the Christian sentiment of our land and of the commandment of God.

A BOLD STEAL.

Some time last night the stable on the premises of Henry McClaren, of the Bluffton road, near the county infirmary, was entered and a horse and buggy stolen. The outfit belonged to Mr. McClaren. The circumstances indicate that the theft was committed in a bold, deliberate manner. The thief drove out the Bluffton road as far as Shive's farm, about eight miles from the city. At this place he stole a buggy belonging to a Mr. Walser, who was stopping for the night with Mr. Shives, and continued on his way, leaving the buggy he had stolen from McClaren. The sheriff lost trace of the thief at this place. Information of the theft has been telegraphed to the surrounding towns, and the fellow will probably be brought to justice. Mr. McClaren places the value of his gelding at $250.

CLEARED UP.

The Safe Robbery in a New York Hotel.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The sensational safe robbery is no longer a mystery. The thieves have been arrested and the money, or at least almost all of it has been recovered. About 9 o'clock last night two employes, whose names are unknown to the Vendome's proprietors, were arrested by Detective Sheldon, and taken to police headquarters. A search of the rooms occupied by the thieves resulted in the recovery of the booty, and Proprietor Plant and Bookmakers Carlan and Saunders are again happy. The manner in which the robbery was partly exposed last night is this:

One of the men, it is said, answered the bell of Bookmaker Carlan's room one evening when Carlan and Saunders were counting their money. He also saw the box and knew it was placed in the office safe. The hall boys have access to the office, the door of which is generally open. On Monday night, when the excitement over the loss of a dog belonging to Mrs. Helen Dauveray caused the clerk within to run to the door, one of the men, it is supposed, slipped into the office and took the box from the safe. He quickly passed it to his accomplice, who secreted it. It is believed that they divided the money Monday night, but put it in one room again when they believed they were suspected. At all events it is known that the bulk of the money never left the hotel.

THE COURTS.

The Rusty Cigar Case in the Circuit-- Other Cases.

The case of Allen vs. Berndt, is up in the circuit court. The action is to restrain the defendant from manufacturing the cigar known as the "Rusty." Allen purchased the business of the "Rusty" and continues to make the cigars. Berndt after selling out started up another manufactory and made cigars which he also sells under the name of "Rusty."

Judge Chapin convened the superior court this morning.

William Smith and William Pease were arrested to day, for assault and battery on William Covault, a driver on the bus line. They are under bonds to appear for trial next Monday at 2 p. m.

Matthias W. Doctor and Wellhelmina E. Lepper have been licensed to wed.

Waldo Hills' trial will come up in the circuit court, October 20. This will be his third trial.

Indiana Vendetta.

VINCENNES, Ind., Sept. 19.—At Sandborn, this county, the Meur and Blevins families engaged in a bloody riot, in which knives, pistols and axes were freely used. Two of the Meurs were fatally hacked with an ax, and Rufus Blevins was shot and instantly killed, while two of his brothers were dangerously injured. The riot grew out of a family feud of long standing between the two families and the result is not a surprise to their friends. So far the Meur and Blevins families are the only ones concerned, but they have a large connection in this county and further trouble may result.

High Jump.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 19.—The horse Roseberry yesterday beat the world's record for high jumping by jumping seven feet and one inch on the exhibition grounds. The highest previous record was seven feet and five eights of an inch, made by the same horse at Elmira, N. Y., a few days ago.

San Salvador.

AN ELEGANT RECEPTION.

The elegant new suburban home of Hon. J. H. Bass, at Brookside, was opened last evening in an auspicious manner, by a reception given under the direction of Miss Grace Bass. A large number of invitations had been issued, and the "Brookside house warming" had come to be regarded as "the" event of the season.

Every available public conveyance was pressed into service to transport the many who attended. Dancing was the feature of the evening. Reineke's orchestra furnished the music and Seidel, the caterer, had a corps of waiters to serve supper. The guests were loud in their praises of the new residence, which is without a doubt one of the finest private residences in Indiana. The house and grounds are lit throughout by electric light. THE SENTINEL hopes at some future time to give a description of Mr. Bass' suburban palace, but space does not permit it here. Those present were: Misses Daisy Simonson, Clara Humphery, Helen Dryer, Grace Mungen, Lottie Lowry, Hattie Schultz, of Kendalville; Miss Lottie Alvord, Alice Crane, Tot. Bulger, Morriel Rorison, Ada Rorison, Carrie Wilson, Tillie Thieme, Hellen Moffatt, Mamie Schoaff, Josie Hartman, Millie McCurdy, Belle Freeman, Nettie Strack; Misses Laubach, Edith Dawson, of New Mexico; Alice Woodward, Louise Woodward, of Kansas City; Miss Cunningham, of Texas; Mamie Zollinger, Lora Lightfoot, Grace White, Lillian Ash, Eureta Bannister, Alice Ward, Octavia Stewart, Cora McLaughlin, Bessie Baldwin, May and Julia Hedekin, Mamie Evans Minnie Hoffman, Nellie Freeman, Miss Freeman, of Orange, N. Harper, Frank Pyke, Ned Bulger, Seymour Boyd, Edgerton, Alvord, Cliff Morganthaler, W. H. Tompkins, Mont Fay, Hall, Joss, Wm. Peltier, Hugh Thieme, R. Newton, Fred Zollars, Frank Morriss, Chas. WAS A SLICK ONE.

A Forged Check Passed Upon C. B. Woodworth, the Druggist.

The fellow, James A. Slocum, who passed a forged bank check of L. O. Hull on Meyer & Bros' drug store the other day was a slick rascal and has so far evaded the efforts of the officers to find him. Another one of his forgeries has just come to light and there are probably other persons whom he has swindled.

The same evening that he passed the forged check on Meyer Bros', he entered the drug store of C. B. Woodworth, at the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets and purchased goods to the amount of $1.75, giving in payment the check of L. O. Hull for $12 on the First National bank of this city.

E. H. Bookwalter, the foreman of the press room at the Daily Gazette office, was in the store, and Mr. Woodworth, not having the change at the time, turned to him to have the check cashed, which he did. The slick Slocum received his change and with the purchased articles left the store. Mr. Bookwalter knew the bank check of L. O. Hull was as good as money and put it in his pocket and carried it until the next day, when he had occasion to purchase meat at the shop of Gottlieb Haller, the south side butcher and gave him the check.

Mr. Haller also knew the bank check of L. O. Hull was perfectly good, and placed it in his money drawer, and paid no more attention to it until he made his deposit at the First National, when the $12 check was pronounced a forgery. It was returned to Mr. Bookwalter, and it was in his hands that THE SENTINEL reporter saw it. The signature was an excellent imitation of Mr. Hull's signature, and shows that Slocum was a slick one. Other forgeries of his may come to light.

A DEMON FIEND.

After Killing a Woman, He Cuts Off His Victim's Ears.

LONG PRAIRIE, Minn., Sept. 19.—Wednesday night a man named Fred Paul, shot Mrs. Louis Buetlow, a neighbor, who lived at Bear Head, eight miles from here, while she was at work in a potato patch. The fiend then cut off his victim's ears. The little daughter of the murdered woman was the only witness of the affair, and told her father on his return. After killing the woman, Paul went home and shot himself, being found by his brother some hours later. Coronor Cooles went to the scene of the tragedy a few hours after the discovery, and found that the hogs had eaten the face off the woman. No cause is assigned for the tragedy, and it is thought the man was insane.

ROBBERS' ROOSTS.

Persons who indulge in drives to the eastern limits of the city, and many persons who go out for a Sunday walk in that direction, come across mysterious appearing holes in the banks fringing the Maumee river, near the ruins of the White wheel works. These caverns in the sand-banks have caused much curiosity among the newly arrived residents of eleven years past, and of the rising generation who were then too young to understand or become interested.

A SENTINEL reporter to day met Billy Streicher while he was transacting some business at the court house during the dinner hour, and happened to hear a few remarks about the above caves. Mr. Streicher has on several occasions proved a valuable help to the police in time of bad fights. He is a man who has frequently been asked to go on the police force, because of his sobriety, judgment and strength, but all efforts to secure him were unavailing. He was active in the detective work which brought to justice the ones who inhabited the caves in question.

Back in 1879 the cavers were dug for a rendezvous of Perry Tracy, Waldo Dunham, James Hartman, Mary Derror, another woman, and it is said, two others. They used these subterranean hiding places as a place to meet and concoct schemes for robbery. Their thieving was confined almost entirely to such articles as iron, brass, carpets and the like. They were finally discovered and the band broken up. Tracy was sent to the penitentiary, where he died not long ago.

Waldo Dunham was also sent up, but was given his freedom less than a year ago, on a conditional pardon that his conduct would be manly, a condition he has rashly broken. He worked at the Olds wagon works for some time, under his brother (who, by the way, is an excellent gentleman) but because of his relapse to bad habits he was discharged and sent out of the state, where if he remains he is not apt to be molested. Hartman, the other conspirator, reformed. The women are both married. The interesting vestige of their criminal practices, to be seen at the river banks is fast, fading away and time will soon wipe out all evidences of this once notorious robbers' roost.

TOO MUCH HOLIDAY.

Drunkenness and Debauchery on the Streets--Police Court

Yesterday was the "big day" at the fair and by many it was celebrated as a holiday. Many visitors arrived during the day and there was a commingling of "nailers, tinkers, tailers, butchers, brewers and bakers; hatters, painters, masons, drainers; wholesale dealers and retailers; scavengers, sweepers and braizers" and an aggregation of other tradesmen. A few pickpockets, too, were about, but no important robbery is reported. The police court received a boom on account of the extra crowd, the slate this morning being as follows:

Jacob Smith, arrested by Officer Quinn. Smith was drunk on East Columbia street yesterday afternoon and tried to carve somebody with a pocket knife. He paid $10:50.

George Swaney, the Payne barber who was up and paid a fine yesterday morning, was locked up again last evening for being beastly drunk. He paid $11.50.

Chief Wilkinson detailed Officer Lapp and a posse to swoop upon Mattie Clark's house of ill fame last night. They found Phillip Cress, John Geismer and five women. The men paid and Madame Clark put up $15.50 each for two of the female sinners. The rest went to jail.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHOIR.

A New Organization Formed--Officers Elected.

In order to further advance the study and practice of vocal music, particularly that of plain chant, the seniors of the Brothers' school of the Cathedral have formed an organization to be known as St. Joseph's choir. The officers are: L. Langan, president; L. Reed, secretary; Theo. Dodane, treasurer.

Exercises in vocalization will be given almost every day under the direction of a capable teacher, and meetings will be held once a month. The present class consists of about twenty members and gives hopes of good results.

THOMPSON'S TICKER.

A Hostler Relieved of a Valuable Time Piece.

In the excitement of the races yesterday William Thompson, a hostler, was relieved of a silver watch and chain. He was unconscious of his loss until he was asked the time of day. The officers were notified, but at last accounts the watch and its new owner were both missing.

C. Z. Rulo, Antwerp, O.; W. W. Bouge, Montpelier; George Whitsky, Indianapolis, are among the guests at Aldine.

To-morrow is the last day of summer.

Our merchants did a good business yesterday.

Rain has come to spoil the last day of the Northern Indiana fair.

The election in Brazil Monday will not be verified by full returns for several weeks, but enough is known to insure the triumph of the republic.

Nearly one hundred students are already enrolled in the classes of the literary department of Taylor university. The prospects for a large attendance are very flattering.

Dion Boucicault, the veteran playwright, died last night at New York City. He was 68 years old and had a world wide reputation, being the author of many famous plays.

The Raum investigation closed yesterday, and the committee will begin the preparation of a report immediately. The pension commissioner will, of course be whitewashed.

The suit brought by the city of Laporte against ex-City Treasurer Hausseer's estate to recover an alleged shortage, under a ruling of the court yesterday, is outlawed. The alleged shortage aggregates about $4,000, and the estate claims it is due to defective bookkeeping.

The Westminster seminary commences its eighth year next Monday. Under the charge of its principals, Miss C. B. Sharp and Mrs. D. B. Wells, Westminster has become one of the best educational institutions in the west for young ladies, and Fort Wayne is proud of it.

T. H. Johnson, whom the Parke county republicans nominated for coroner, has withdrawn from the ticket because "reports damaging to my character have been circulated throughout the county which it is useless to refute at this late day," as he expresses it in his card of withdrawal.

J. S. Todd, a progressive farmer of Knox county, planted thirty acres in sunflower seed this season, using the Russian variety. The yield is estimated at 40,000 pounds, and he will realize about $63 per acre by his venture. The entire crop has been sold to one firm, to be manufactured into oil and condition powders.

The city council of Chicago has instructed the corporation council to draft an ordinance providing for the erection of plants by the city for the purpose of furnishing gas for light and fuel purposes, and electricity for illuminating and power, at substantially cost prices. What a grand thing such a scheme would be to Fort Wayne.

Bismark is one of the largest landowners in Prussia, and he carries on successfully at his various estates the business of cattle-breeding, geese-breeding, distilling spirits, brewing and the manufacture of yeast. His cattle and geese industries yield him an annual profit of $3,500 to $4,500, and the annual income from his yeast business, the most important item in the ex-Chancellor's income, is about $34,000. His jewels, pictures and plate represent a value of $500,000, and his total income is not far from $175,000 a year.

At New Orleans, Baton Rouge and other places salutes were fired by the anti-lottery league of Louisiana in honor of the passage by congress of the anti-lottery bill.

Another policeman found drunk on his beat! Put only sober men in positions of this kind. The people have no protection from crime when drunken policemen are on duty.

Democratic workingmen should not be deceived into casting their lot with the third party. The democratic party is the party of the people and will give them legislation that is to their benefit.

Official returns of the vote in Maine for governor are as follows: Burleigh, 64,199; Thompson, 45,259. Clark, 2,949; scattering, 956. Total, 113,363. Burleigh's plurality, 18,940. There has been no change in the list of senators as published. The next house will stand 110 republicans to 41 democrats.

John D. Rockafeller has just given $1,000,000 more to the new Chicago Baptist University, in addition to the $600,000 which he contributed previously. This magnificent offer was laid before the board of trustees of the institution and was quickly accepted. Success, at least so far as it depends upon financial considerations, is already assured to the new university. The board of trustees have elected Prof. W. R. Harper, of Yale college, president of the new institution.

Hon. J. B. Stoll says in the South Bend Times: "Orlando Kimmell, of Noble county, is the republican nominee for congress in the Fort Wayne district. Orlando is a sly old fox, and expects to utilize his connection with the Farmers' alliance to slip into the congress. In the early part of the melancholy days of November a little bird will chirp into Orlando's ears a tale of woe that will remind him of the folly of spending precious time in wildly chasing a rainbow on the political horizon."

The people have a right to demand sobriety among the men whom they have elevated to official positions, and should insist that all drunken officials be dismissed from duty at once. No business man would tolerate drunkenness among his employes, and the public should not be expected to do so either. Let drunken officials be given the "grand bounce," and place men in office who are not addicted to the ruinous drink habit. We may have more to say on this subject at some future time.

The Fair association made a mistake when, they allowed the sale of whisky and beer on the grounds at the Northern Indiana fair. The people who attend such exhibitions as these have a right to demand that they shall be free from coming in contact with the drunkenness that prevailed on the grounds yesterday, which resulted from the sale of intoxicants by men who had been given the privilege to deal these beverages out. Fights, without number almost, occurred yesterday, many bloody heads resulted, while drunken men were seen everywhere. Gambling games were also allowed to be conducted on the grounds and many farmers' lads were fleeced out of their money. All these things, which are a disgrace, should have been prevented by the fair association.

This compliment is paid to Congressman McClellan in the Butler Review: "Judge McClellan was unable to be present at the convention on account of press of congressional duties, and this calls to our mind the fact that the judge had not left his post of duty since he left for Washington, thus exhibiting the same characteristic of faithfulness in regard to public duty he has always exhibited in his law practice and in the conduct of his own private affairs. Such faithfulness on the part of officials is rare, indeed, and is highly commendable. His public life, both as judge and as congressman, fully demonstrates that he always has been and is in full accord with the now famous idea of that wise and eminent statesman, Grover Cleveland, that "a public office is a public trust," and because of this faithfulness he has been rewarded as he richly deserves with a unanimous renomination, which will be followed by an equally satisfactory endorsement at the polls."

Let the young man who has yet to take his first drink of intoxicants stop a moment and think, and ere he raises the glass to his lips read this: About a week ago, while clearing out a large beer vat in a large brewery at Toledo, the men who were doing the work found the skeleton and clothes of a man. It is supposed that the man went into the vat about a month ago, fell asleep and was drowned when the beer was poured in upon him. The beer was put into kegs and shipped out, and many a man went to his home with the fumes of this vile stuff on his breath. Whisky, in many cases, is even worse than this. It is a common practice among small distillers in Germany to put large black ants in whisky to give the liquor a fiery red pepper taste, and some of the whisky in this country is made of ingredients which a brute would not take into his stomach. It wouldn't hurt the old toper, either, to think sometimes of the horrible ingredients that are mixed up in his drams, but then he has got so accustomed to drinking the forty-rod bug-juice article that such thoughts as these would not stop him in his headlong course to ruin and death.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The following interesting questions of law were decided in the supreme court of the state on Wednesday of this week:

When a tract of land is sold, represented to contain a certain number of acres, and payment is to be made of a stipulated price per acre for the number of acres represented to be in the tract, and not for a sum in gross, and the tract is found to contain less than the number of acres represented, the buyer has a right to have the contract value of the number of acres not conveyed to him deducted from the purchase money note.

(1) A mortgagor who has parted with the title to the mortgaged land and against whom no personal judgment is sought, is not a necessary party to a complaint to forelose the mortgage. (2) Where a defendant, after his demurer to the complaint has been overruled, fails to plead further and a decree of foreclosure is entered for want of an answer, such decree will not be set aside, and leave given to defendant to file an answer, unless a defence to the action is shown. (3) The purchaser of mortgaged premises cannot defend against the note and mortgage on the ground that they were executed under duress, or for an illegal consideration, nor upon the ground of converture of one of the mortgagors, as such defences are personal to the makers of the instruments.

Where a father furnishes money and purchases land and causes it to be conveyed to his son (who although forty years of age and unmarried, continues to reside with his father), without any contemporaneous understanding or agreement concerning repayment of the purchase money, no resulting trust arises nor does the son personally become his father's debtor. The presumption is that the amount paid is an advancement. So, where in such case a verdict has been returned against the son, but before judgment is rendered thereon the son executes to his father a mortgage upon the lend for the amount of the money so furnished; such a mortgage will not be good as against the judgment creditors unless it be affirmatively shown by the parties asserting the validity of the mortgage by the contemporaneous facts and circumstances that it was understood and intended that the money paid for the son's benefit constituted a debt to his father. A mere secret intention on the part of the father to treat the money paid as a debt is not effectual, either as against the son or his creditors.

There's a corset that isn't a corset, a waist with straps for the shoulders and rows of buttons to button on skirts and stocking supporters and so forth—the Ball Waist—and that's about the whole of it. No; you can put it in the washtub—no metal in it or on it.

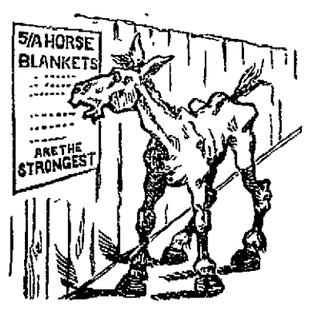

It is worth your seeing, if for nothing but how to sew on buttons to button easy and never come off, and how to make buttonholes wear forever

Women differ in their ways of thinking and dressing as well as in other ways. This waist is for women whose minds are made up that they won't wear corsets.

There's much to be said on both sides; but did you ever hear of a woman who hadn't made up her mind in some way? and is there any possible use in trying to get her to change it? She will and she will; or she won't and she won't.

You can get the Ball Waist and wear it a week or two or three; and, if you don't want it, take it back to the store and get your money.

THE FAIR.

Rain Comes to Spoil the Last Day—Yesterday Was a Big Day.

It is estimated that at least 10,000 people were on the grounds yesterday to attend the northern Indiana fair in this city, and an equally as large crowd would have been in attendance to-day had it not been for the rain, which began falling at an early morning hour.

The exhibition given by Miss Jackson and Mr. Van Norman yesterday was good, Mr. Van Norman riding two horses with one foot on a chair on the back of each horse, while Miss Jackson rode in the side saddle against him. Another event on the program yesterday was the exhibition in harness of Nelson, the great trotting stallion. Mr. O. H. Nelson, his owner, held the ribbons and trotted him a mile in 2:22, the fastest mile made on the track this season and within three quarters of a second of the track record. The following is the summary of the races yesterday.

Free-for-all pace, purse, $240—Dan D, 1, 3, 1, 1; Ivorene, 4, 1, 4, 4; Daisy C, 2, 2, 2, 2; Mary Centlivry, 3, 4, 3, 3. Time, 2:24½, 2:28½, 2:26½, 2:30½.

The Purest and Best

Articles known to medical science are used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every ingredient is carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. The medicine is prepared under the supervision of thoroughly competent pharmacists, and every step in the process of manufacture is carefully watched with a view to securing in Hood's Sarsaparilla the best possible result.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

Several Buildings Struck at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 19.—Yesterday a heavy rainstorm, accompanied by lightning, visited this section. Many cellars in this city were flooded, and the damage to goods stored in the basements of those houses will be considerable. The large volume of water on the streets caused a suspension of travel for over an hour. Several buildings were struck by lightning and three persons were severely hurt.

There may be persons in this community who are at times troubled with colic, or subject to attacks of bowel complaint. If so, they should try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. It will afford almost immediate relief, and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. If taken as soon as the first indication of the disease is felt it will ward off the attack. Many people use it in this way and find that it never fails them. A 25 cent or 50 cent bottle may be obtained from druggists.

James T. Gott, Carmi, Ill., Says:

He paid thirty-one dollars doctor's bill for his wife in one year, and one bottle of Bradfield's Female Regulator did her more good than all the medicine she had taken before.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF NEW YORK, SECURES IT.

Nearly $600,000 Paid by Members of one Family for Insurance in the Mutual.—The Most Stupendous Transaction Known in the History of Insurance.—"It has Never Been Done Before; It Never Will Be Done Again."

—E. C. POTTER & CO.—

No. 799. New York, Dec. 24, 1889.

Five hundred and Seventy Eight Thousand, Three Hundred and Forty Five ——— LARS.

E. C. POTTER & CO.

The above check was received by the Mutual Life Ins. Co. of New York, for Insurance effected upon the lives of five members of the illustrious Havemeyer family of the City of New York. The Policies selected were the 10 year guarantee contracts of the Mutual Life's with the annuity feature added. Each policy was for the sum of $100,000 and the insured chose to make but one payment, thus commuting the cost. The insurance covered by the above mentioned premium payment of $578,345.00 was upon the lives of Mr. Theo. A. Havemeyer, the well known Merchant of this City, and Four members of his family. Mr. Theo. Havemeyer, is the Austrian Counsel General and a Gentleman of wide influence and of great business sagacity. Mr. E. C. Potter, whose signature is appended to the check, is the son-in-law of Mr. Havemeyer, and is one of the most prominent of bankers and brokers operating upon the stock exchange. There are two significant points for consideration in connection with this Insurance.

First, that the Messrs Havemeyer seeking a profitable and safe investment of a vast fund, selected Life Insurance as offering more advantages and greater security than any other form of investment. Second That they had such faith in the management and stability of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, that they willingly entrusted to its care nearly $600,000 in cash without any security whatever, and only the PROMISE of the company to pay.

The particulars of the life insurance contracted for by the family of Mr. Theo. A. Havemeyer, with the MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, by which that institution received a single premium payment of $578,345.00, will excite wonderment and surprise in the world of underwriting, and set the general public to thinking of the possibilities of life insurance as an investment.

The idea of a party with six hundred thousand dollars of spare cash on hand, putting it all into life insurance.

Why didn't they build houses or purchase stocks, or do a dozen other things with it? Life insurance for an investment! That's all very well, some people think, if you must do it. But here are five members of one family engaged in merchantile pursuits, fully alive to the value of every financial scheme of importance in this or any other country, who after examining every tempting investment, came to the conclusion that the safest, most profitable and altogether desirable one, is that offered by the MUTUAL LIFE.

Then think of the fact that all this money, far exceeding half a million dollars, is placed in the hands of the company without other security than its promise to pay. If that is'nt an evidence of confidence, what could be?

IT'S THE LARGEST, STRONGEST AND BEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WORLD. Its assets are thirty millions greater than those of any other American Life Insurance company. Over eighty millions greater than those of any life office in Great Britain, and sixty millions greater than the entire funds of the bank of England, which is the largest banking institution in the world.

The Mutual Life Issues Every Desirable Form of Policy.

Hat Tips!

If you have a thought inside of your head that you want a new HAT outside of your head, the place to materialize your notion elegantly and economically is in our HAT DEPARTMENT.

Perhaps you buy your hats of us now; if not, it's time you began. You will never know how much you have missed—how much you have lost—until you see the sort of DERBY HATS we sell for $1.50, $2.00, $2 50 and $3 00. Dealers wonder how we do it; its simple enough, though. Between buying a few dozen hats of a jobber—that's how most dealers supply themselves—and buying many dozens of CASES direct from the manufacturer, with all the cash discounts off, means a saving of fully twenty-five per cent.; and then, you know, we don't expect to make enough on one hat to pay our rent. Our competitors would have you believe that we sell hats below cost as a bait; we don't, that is not below OUR COST.

Did you know that we were offering some great bargains in Boys HATS. Boy's and Girls Fancy Caps and the latest novelties in Children's wear from a low priced Hat or Cap at twenty five cents to the very best that is made.

If you have never visited our Hat department you can not well form an idea of the extent of our stock, the vast variety we display and above all the very low price with which we are willing to part with them.

HARRISON'S OUTING.

He Issues a Proclamation on the Live Stock Question and Signs Several Bills.

To Whom it May Concern:

"Whereas, It has been represented to me that, by reason of the drought which has prevailed in the Indian territory and in the adjoining states, the execution of my proclamation of February 17, 1890, requiring the removal of all live stock from the Cherokee outlet on or before October 1st, would work great hardship and loss not only to the owners of stock herdmen on the strip but to the owners of cattle in the adjoining states, and

Whereas, The owners of all cattle now herded upon the outlet have submitted to me a proposition in writing whereby they agree to remove one half of their stock from the outlet on or before November 1st, and the residue thereof and all their property and employes on or before December 1st next, and to abandon all claims in said outlet. Now, therefore I, Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States, do give notice and the limit heretofore fixed for the removal of the live stock herded upon said outlet is extended to November 1st as to one-half thereof and to December 1st next as to the residue thereon and to all property and employes."

The president this morning approved the anti-lottery and river and harbor appropriation bills. He also attached his approval to the resolutions adopted by congress in eulogy of Hon. Samuel J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, and David Wilbur and N. W. Nutting, of New York. The president has recognized Francisco Lamberti ghi as consul general for Italy. He has also sent to Washington the following nominations: John A. Riner, of Wyoming, to be United States district judge for Wyoming; Benjamin F. Fowler, of Wyoming, to be United States district attorney for the district of Wyoming, and John H. Rankin, of Wyoming, to be United States marshal for the district of Wyoming; second Lieutenant C. L. Potter, corps of engineers, to be first lieutenant vice Spencer, resigned; additional second Lieutenant Chester Harding to be second lieutenant corps of engineers vice Potter, promoted.

Mr. Tibbett, of the executive office, who brought to the president the anti-lottery and river and harbor bills, reports that the executive mansion having been undergoing extensive repairs, is yet uninhabitable and that it would be imprudent for the president and his family to remain in the house permanently for some time to come. In these circumstances the president will remain here until some time next week; then if compelled to return to Washington before the house is habitable, he will probably accept the hospitality of Postmaster General Wanamaker or some one of the other cabinet officers until he can take his family to the White house.

Mr. Boyd has arranged to give the president another day's outing. To-morrow at 9 a. m. a special train with the president and members of his family will leave here for Clearfield, Honadale, Philipsburg and Curwinsville, which towns are located in the the bituminous coal regions. The presidential party will travel in Vice-President Thompson's private car. Upon reaching the coal fields the miners will be excused from duty, and a parade of several thousand miners will pass in review of the executive. The trip will occupy the entire day. The arrangements for the president's reception and entertainment by the citizens of the coal region will be under the immediate supervision of Hon. Wm. H. Dill, of Clearfield, Pa. The presidential family are the only guests left in the cottage, and the hotel will be deserted by night. To-morrow morning it will close its doors. Secretary Halford's family will return to Washington some time to-morrow.

The Express says that the arrests were imperative in order to relieve the tenants of Tipperary.

FIRE AMONG INSANE.

An Asylum in Texas Destroyed--Big Fires in Illinois and Michigan.

A LONG FAST.

A Woman in Allentown Goes 178 Days Without Food.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Adam Wuchtler, of White Hall, seven miles from here, has passed the 178d day since she has tasted food or drink in any form. This is vouched for by her attending physicians. The unfortunate woman's fast does not arise from choice on her part, inasmuch as she is afflicted with a malignant cancer of the pharynx, which prevents her from swallowing either solid or liquid food, although she craves it constantly. The doctors cannot account for her wonderful tenacity of life, except that she is possessed of a phenominally strong constitution. Her condition is gradually worse, her lower extremities are cold like those of a dead person, and her vitality is at an exceedingly low ebb.

MANAGER M'CRACKEN.

An official circular has been issued, stating that J. K. McCracken has been appointed general manager of the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas railroad with headquarters at Louisville.

EVERYTHING QUIET

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A special from the City of Guatemala says everything is quiet here now. The officers and men of the United States war vessels are pretty well tired of their stay and view with satisfaction the orders they have received to leave. The Thetis leaves San Jose next week for Nicaraguay, touching at LaUnion, Salvador and Amampa, Honduras. The Ranger goes from here to Punta Ararsa, Costa Rico and from thence to Panama.

SIR SABBATH.

The St. Louis Presbytery Condemns the World's Fair Committee.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 19.—The St. Louis Presbytery this morning passed resolutions condemning the action of the World's fair commissioners for voting to keep the exhibition open on Sunday. The resolutions claim that keeping the exhibition open on Sunday is in violation of the Christian sentiment of our land and of the commandment of God.

A BOLD STEAL.

Some time last night the stable on the premises of Henry McClaren, of the Bluffton road, near the county infirmary, was entered and a horse and buggy stolen. The outfit belonged to Mr. McClaren. The circumstances indicate that the theft was committed in a bold, deliberate manner. The thief drove out the Bluffton road as far as Shive's farm, about eight miles from the city. At this place he stole a buggy belonging to a Mr. Walser, who was stopping for the night with Mr. Shives, and continued on his way, leaving the buggy he had stolen from McClaren. The sheriff lost trace of the thief at this place. Information of the theft has been telegraphed to the surrounding towns, and the fellow will probably be brought to justice. Mr. McClaren places the value of his gelding at $250.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The sensational safe robbery is no longer a mystery. The thieves have been arrested and the money, or at least almost all of it has been recovered. About 2 o'clock last night two employes, whose names are unknown to the Vendome's proprietors, were arrested by Detective Sheldon, and taken to police headquarters. A search of the rooms occupied by the thieves resulted in the recovery of the booty, and Proprietor Plant and Bookmakers Carlan and Saunders are again happy. The manner in which the robbery was partly exposed last night is this:

One of the men, it is said, answered the bell of Bookmaker Carlan's room one evening when Carlan and Saunders were counting their money. He also saw the box and knew it was placed in the office safe. The hall boys have access to the office, the door of which is generally open. On Monday night, when the excitement over the loss of a dog belonging to Mrs. Helen Dauvery caused the clerk within to run to the door, one of the men, it is supposed, slipped into the office and took the box from the safe. He quickly passed it to his accomplice, who secreted it. It is believed that they divided the money Monday night, but put it in one room again when they believed they were suspected. At all events it is known that the bulk of the money never left the hotel.

THE COURTS.

The Rusty Cigar Case in the Circuit--Other Cases.

The case of Allen vs. Berndt, is up in the circuit court. The action is to restrain the defendant from manufacturing the cigar known as the "Rusty." Allen purchased the business of the "Rusty" and continues to make the cigars. Berndt after selling out started up another manufactory and made cigars which he also sells under the name of "Rusty."

Judge Chapin convened the superior court this morning.

William Smith and William Pease were arrested to day, for assault and battery on William Cuvault, a driver on the bus line. They are under bonds to appear for trial next Monday at 2 p. m.

Matthias W. Doctor and Wolhelmina E. Lepper have been licensed to wed.

Waldo Hills' trial will come up in the circuit court, October 20. This will be his third trial.

Indiana Vendetta.

VINCENNES, Ind., Sept. 19.—At Sandborn, this county, the Mears and Blevins families engaged in a bloody riot, in which knives, pistols and axes were freely used. Two of the Mears were fatally hacked with an ax, and Rufus Blevins was shot and instantly killed, while two of his brothers were dangerously injured. The riot grew out of a family feud of long standing between the two families and the result is not a surprise to their friends. So far the Mear and Blevins families are the only ones concerned, but they have a large connection in this county and further trouble may result.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 19.—The horse Rosebery yesterday beat the world's record for high jumping by jumping seven feet and one inch on the exhibition grounds. The highest previous record was seven feet and five-eighths of an inch, made by the same horse at Elmira, N. Y., a few days ago.

AN ELEGANT RECEPTION.

The elegant new suburban home of Hon. J. H. Bass, at Brookside, was opened last evening in an auspicious manner, by a reception given under the direction of Miss Grace Bass. A large number of invitations had been issued, and the "Brookside house warming" had come to be regarded as "the" event of the season.

Every available public conveyance was pressed into service to transport the many who attended. Dancing was the feature of the evening. Reinoke's orchestra furnished the music and Seidel, the caterer, had a corps of waiters to serve supper. The guests were loud in their praises of the new residence, which is without a doubt one of the finest private residences in Indiana. The house and grounds are lit throughout by electric light. THE SENTINEL hopes at some future time to give a description of Mr. Bass' suburban palace, but space does not permit it here. Those present were: Misses Daisy Simonson, Clara Humphery, Helen Dryer, Grace Mungen, Lottie Lowry, Hattie Schultz, of Kendalville; Miss Lottie Alvord, Alice Crane, Tot. Bulger, Morriel Rorison, Ada Rorison, Carrie Wilson, Tillie Thieme, Hellen Moffatt, Mamie Schoaff, Josie Hartman, Millie McCurdy, Belle Freeman, Nettie Strack; Misses Laubach, Edith Dawson, of New Mexico; Alice Woodward, Louise Woodward, of Kansas City; Miss Cunningham, of Texas; Mamie Zollinger, Lora Lightfoot, Grace White, Lillian Ash, Eureta Bannister, Alice Ward, Octavia Stewart, Cora McLauchlin, Bessie Baldwin, May and Julia Hedekin, Mamie Evans Minnie Hoffman, Nellie Freeman, Miss Freeman, of Orange, N. J., Tracy Guild, Anna Bond, Miss Switzcher, of Marion, Anna Robertson, Agnes Seabrease, Connie Wilder, Connie and Georgia Lambard; Messrs. Art Pickard, Will Evans, John T. Dougall, Harvey Crane, Jas. Harper, Frank Pyke, Ned Bulger, Seymour Boyd, Edgerton, Alvord, Cliff Morganthaler, W. H. Tompkins, Mont Foy, Hall, Joss, Wm. Peltier, Hugh Thieme, R. Newton, Fred Zollars, Frank Morriss, Chas. WAS A SLICK ONE.

A Forged Check Passed Upon C. B. Woodworth, the Druggist.

The fellow, James A. Slocum, who passed a forged bank check of L. O. Hull on Meyer & Bros' drug store the other day was a slick rascal and has so far evaded the efforts of the officers to find him. Another one of his forgeries has just come to light and there are probably other persons whom he has swindled.

The same evening that he passed the forged check on Meyer Bros', he entered the drug store of C. B. Woodworth, at the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets and purchased goods to the amount of $1.75, giving in payment the check of L. O. Hull for $12 on the First National bank of this city.

E. H. Bookwalter, the foreman of the press room at the Daily Gazette office, was in the store, and Mr. Woodworth, not having the change at the time, turned to him to have the check cashed, which he did. The slick Slocum received his change and with the purchased articles left the store. Mr. Bookwalter knew the bank check of L. O. Hull was as good as money and put it in his pocket and carried it until the next day, when he had occasion to purchase meat at the shop of Gottlieb Haller, the south side butcher and gave him the check.

Mr. Haller also knew the bank check of L. O. Hull was perfectly good, and placed it in his money drawer, and paid no more attention to it until he made his deposit at the First National, when the $12 check was pronounced a forgery. It was returned to Mr. Bookwalter, and it was in his hands that THE SENTINEL reporter saw it. The signature was an excellent imitation of Mr. Hull's signature, and shows that Slocum was a slick one. Other forgeries of his may come to light.

A DEMON FIEND.

LONG PRAIRIE, Minn., Sept. 19.—Wednesday night a man named Fred Paul, shot Mrs. Louis Buetlow, a neighbor, who lived at Bear Head, eight miles from here, while she was at work in a potato patch. The fiend then cut off his victim's ears. The little daughter of the murdered woman was the only witness of the affair, and told her father on his return. After killing the woman, Paul went home and shot himself, being found by his brother some hours later. Coroner Cooles went to the scene of the tragedy a few hours after the discovery, and found that the hogs had eaten the face off the woman. No cause is assigned for the tragedy, and it is thought the man was insane.

ROBBERS' ROOSTS.

Persons who indulge in drives to the eastern limits of the city, and many persons who go out for a Sunday walk in that direction, come across mysterious appearing holes in the banks fringing the Maumee river, near the ruins of the White wheel works. These caverns in the sand-banks have caused much curiosity among the newly arrived residents of eleven years past, and of the rising generation who were then too young to understand or become interested.

A SENTINEL reporter to-day met Billy Streicher while he was transacting some business at the court house during the dinner hour, and happened to hear a few remarks about the above caves. Mr. Streicher has on several occasions proved a valuable help to the police in time of bad fights. He is a man who has frequently been asked to go on the police force, because of his sobriety, judgment and strength, but all efforts to secure him were unavailing. He was active in the detective work which brought to justice the ones who inhabited the caves in question.

Back in 1879 the caves were dug for a rendezvous of Perry Tracy, Waldo Dunham, James Hartman, Mary Derror, another woman, and it is said, two others. They used these subterranean hiding places as a place to meet and concoct schemes for robbery. Their thieving was confined almost entirely to such articles as iron, brass, carpets and the like. They were finally discovered and the band broken up. Tracy was sent to the penitentiary, where he died not long ago.

Waldo Dunham was also sent up, but was given his freedom less than a year ago, on a conditional pardon that his conduct would be manly, a condition he has rashly broken. He worked at the Olds wagon works for some time, under his brother (who, by the way, is an excellent gentleman) but because of his relapse to bad habits he was discharged and sent out of the state, where if he remains he is not apt to be molested. Hartman, the other conspirator, reformed. The women are both married. The interesting vestige of their criminal practices, to be seen at the river banks is fast, fading away and time will soon wipe out all evidences of this once notorious robbers' roost.

TOO MUCH HOLIDAY.

Drunkenness and Debauchery on the Streets--Police Court

Yesterday was the "big day" at the fair and by many it was celebrated as a holiday. Many visitors arrived during the day and there was a commingling of "millers, tinkers, tailers, butchers, brewers and bakers; hatters, painters, masons, drainers; wholesale dealers and retailers; scavengers, sweepers and brainers" and an aggregation of other tradesmen. A few pickpockets, too, were about, but no important robbery is reported. The police court received a boom on account of the extra crowd, the slate this morning being as follows:

Jacob Smith, arrested by Officer Quinn. Smith was drunk on East Columbia street yesterday afternoon and tried to carve somebody with a pocket knife. He paid $10.50.

George Swaney, the Payne barber who was up and paid a fine yesterday morning, was locked up again last evening for being beastly drunk. He paid $11.50.

Chief Wilkinson detailed Officer Lapp and a posse to swoop upon Mattie Clark's house of ill fame last night. They found Phillip Cross, John Geisner and five women. The men paid and Madame Clark put up $15.50 each for two of the female sinners. The rest went to jail.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHOIR.

A New Organization Formed--Officers Elected.

In order to further advance the study and practice of vocal music, particularly that of plain chant, the seniors of the Brothers' school of the Cathedral have formed an organization to be known as St. Joseph's choir. The officers are: L. Langan, president; L. Reed, secretary; Theo. Dodane, treasurer.

Exercises in vocalization will be given almost every day under the direction of a capable teacher, and meetings will be held once a month. The present class consists of about twenty members and gives hopes of good results.

THOMPSON'S TICKER.

In the excitement of the races yesterday William Thompson, a hostler, was relieved of a silver watch and chain. He was unconscious of his loss until he was asked the time of day. The officers were notified, but at last accounts the watch and its new owner were both missing.

C. Z. Rulo, Antwerp, O.; W. W. Bouge, Montpelier; George Whitely, Indinnapolis, are among the guests at Aldine.

TO-MORROW is the last day of summer.

OUR merchants did a good business yesterday.

RAIN has come to spoil the last day of the Northern Indiana fair.

THE election in Brazil Monday will not be verified by full returns for several weeks, but enough is known to insure the triumph of the republic.

NEARLY one hundred students are already enrolled in the classes of the literary department of Taylor university. The prospects for a large attendance are very flattering.

DION BOUCICAULT, the veteran playwright, died last night at New York City. He was 68 years old and had a world wide reputation, being the author of many famous plays.

THE Raum investigation closed yesterday, and the committee will begin the preparation of a report immediately. The pension commissioner will, of course be whitewashed.

THE suit brought by the city of Laporte against ex-City Treasurer Hausseer's estate to recover an alleged shortage, under a ruling of the court yesterday, is outlawed. The alleged shortage aggregates about $4,000, and the estate claims it is due to defective bookkeeping.

THE Westminster seminary commences its eighth year next Monday. Under the charge of its principals, Miss C. B. Sharp and Mrs. D. B. Wells, Westminster has become one of the best educational institutions in the west for young ladies, and Fort Wayne is proud of it.

T. H. JOHNSON, whom the Parke county republicans nominated for coroner, has withdrawn from the ticket because "reports damaging to my character have been circulated throughout the county which it is useless to refute at this late day," as he expresses it in his card of withdrawal.

J. S. TODD, a progressive farmer of Knox county, planted thirty acres in sunflower seed this season, using the Russian variety. The yield is estimated at 40,000 pounds, and he will realize about $63 per acre by his venture. The entire crop has been sold to one firm, to be manufactured into oil and condition powders.

THE city council of Chicago has instructed the corporation council to draft an ordinance providing for the erection of plants by the city for the purpose of furnishing gas for light and fuel purposes, and electricity for illuminating and power, at substantially cost prices. What a grand thing such a scheme would be to Fort Wayne.

BISMARK is one of the largest landowners in Prussia, and he carries on successfully at his various estates the business of cattle-breeding, geese-breeding, distilling spirits, brewing and the manufacture of yeast. His cattle and geese industries yield him an annual profit of $3,500 to $4,500, and the annual income from his yeast business, the most important item in the ex-Chancellor's income, is about $34,000. His jewels, pictures and plate represent a value of $500,000, and his total income is not far from $175,000 a year.

AT New Orleans, Baton Rouge and other places salutes were fired by the anti-lottery league of Louisiana in honor of the passage by congress of the anti-lottery bill.

ANOTHER policeman found drunk on his beat! Put only sober men in positions of this kind. The people have no protection from crime when drunken policemen are on duty.

DEMOCRATIC workingmen should not be deceived into casting their lot with the third party. The democratic party is the party of the people and will give them legislation that is to their benefit.

OFFICIAL returns of the vote in Maine for governor are as follows: Burleigh, 64,199; Thompson, 45,259. Clark, 2,949; scattering, 956. Total, 113,363. Burleigh's plurality, 18,940. There has been no change in the list of senators as published. The next house will stand 110 republicans to 41 democrats.

JOHN D. ROCKAFELLER has just given $1,000,000 more to the new Chicago Baptist University, in addition to the $600,000 which he contributed previously. This magnificent offer was laid before the board of trustees of the institution and was quickly accepted. Success, at least so far as it depends upon financial considerations, is already assured to the new university. The board of trustees have elected Prof. W. R. Harper, of Yale college, president of the new institution.

HON. J. B. STOLL says in the South Bend Times: "Orlando Kimmell, of Noble county, is the republican nominee for congress in the Fort Wayne district. Orlando is a sly old fox, and expects to utilize his connection with the Farmers' alliance to slip into the congress. In the early part of the melancholy days of November a little bird will chirp into Orlando's ears a tale of woe that will remind him of the folly of spending precious time in wildly chasing a rainbow on the political horizon."

THE people have a right to demand sobriety among the men whom they have elevated to official positions, and should insist that all drunken officials be dismissed from duty at once. No business man would tolerate drunkenness among his employes, and the public should not be expected to do so either. Let drunken officials be given the "grand bounce," and place men in office who are not addicted to the ruinous drink habit. We may have more to say on this subject at some future time.

THE Fair association made a mistake when, they allowed the sale of whisky and beer on the grounds at the Northern Indiana fair. The people who attend such exhibitions as these have a right to demand that they shall be free from coming in contact with the drunkenness that prevailed on the grounds yesterday, which resulted from the sale of intoxicants by men who had been given the privilege to deal these beverages out. Fights, without number almost, occurred yesterday, many bloody heads resulted, while drunken men were seen everywhere. Gambling games were also allowed to be conducted on the grounds and many farmers' lads were fleeced out of their money. All these things, which are a disgrace, should have been prevented by the fair association.

THIS compliment is paid to Congressman McClellan in the Butler Review: "Judge McClellan was unable to be present at the convention on account of press of congressional duties, and this calls to our mind the fact that the judge had not left his post of duty since he left for Washington, thus exhibiting the same characteristic of faithfulness in regard to public duty he has always exhibited in his law practice and in the conduct of his own private affairs. Such faithfulness on the part of officials is rare, indeed, and is highly commendable. His public life, both as judge and as congressman, fully demonstrates that he always has been and is in full accord with the now famous idea of that wise and eminent statesman, Grover Cleveland, that "a public office is a public trust," and because of this faithfulness he has been rewarded as he richly deserves with a unanimous renomination, which will be followed by an equally satisfactory endorsement at the polls."

LET the young man who has yet to take his first drink of intoxicants stop a moment and think, and ere he raises the glass to his lips read this: About a week ago, while clearing out a large beer vat in a large brewery at Toledo, the men who were doing the work found the skeleton and clothes of a man. It is supposed that the man went into the vat about a month ago, fell asleep and was drowned when the beer was poured in upon him. The beer was put into kegs and shipped out, and many a man went to his home with the fumes of this vile stuff on his breath. Whisky, in many cases, is even worse than this. It is a common practice among small distillers in Germany to put large black ants in whisky to give the liquor a fiery red pepper taste, and some of the whisky in this country is made of ingredients which a brute would not take into his stomach. It wouldn't hurt the old toper, either, to think sometimes of the horrible ingredients that are mixed up in his drams, but then he has got so accustomed to drinking the forty-rod bug-juice article that such thoughts as these would not stop him in his headlong course to ruin and death.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The following interesting questions of law were decided in the supreme court of the state on Wednesday of this week:

When a tract of land is sold, represented to contain a certain number of acres, and payment is to be made of a stipulated price per acre for the number of acres represented to be in the tract, and not for a sum in gross, and the tract is found to contain less than the number of acres represented, the buyer has a right to have the contract value of the number of acres not conveyed to him deducted from the purchase money note.

(1) A mortgagor who has parted with the title to the mortgaged land and against whom no personal judgment is sought, is not a necessary party to a complaint to foreclose the mortgage. (2) Where a defendant, after his demurer to the complaint has been overruled, fails to plead further and a decree of foreclosure is entered for want of an answer, such decree will not be set aside, and leave given to defendant to file an answer, unless a defence to the action is shown. (3) The purchaser of mortgaged premises cannot defend against the note and mortgage on the ground that they were executed under duress, or for an illegal consideration, nor upon the ground of converture of one of the mortgagors, as such defences are personal to the makers of the instruments.

Where a father furnishes money and purchases land and causes it to be conveyed to his son (who although forty years of age and unmarried, continues to reside with his father), without any contemporaneous understanding or agreement concerning repayment of the purchase money, no resulting trust arises nor does the son personally become his father's debtor. The presumption is that the amount paid is an advancement. So, where in such case a verdict has been returned against the son, but before judgment is rendered thereon the son executes to his father a mortgage upon the land for the amount of the money so furnished; such a mortgage will not be good as against the judgment creditors unless it be affirmatively shown by the parties asserting the validity of the mortgage by the contemporaneous facts and circumstances that it was understood and intended that the money paid for the son's benefit constituted a debt to his father. A mere secret intention on the part of the father to treat the money paid as a debt is not effectual, either as against the son or his creditors.

There's a corset that isn't a corset, a waist with straps for the shoulders and rows of buttons to button on skirts and stocking supporters and so forth—the Ball Waist—and that's about the whole of it. No; you can put it in the washtub—no metal in it or on it.

It is worth your seeing, if for nothing but how to sew on buttons to button easy and never come off, and how to make buttonholes wear forever.

Women differ in their ways of thinking and dressing as well as in other ways. This waist is for women whose minds are made up that they won't wear corsets.

There's much to be said on both sides; but did you ever hear of a woman who hadn't made up her mind in some way? and is there any possible use in trying to get her to change it? She will and she will; or she won't and she won't.

You can get the Ball Waist and wear it a week or two or three; and, if you don't want it, take it back to the store and get your money.

THE FAIR.

Rain Comes to Spoil the Last Day—Yesterday Was a Big Day.

It is estimated that at least 10,000 people were on the grounds yesterday to attend the northern Indiana fair in this city, and an equally as large crowd would have been in attendance to-day had it not been for the rain, which began falling at an early morning hour.

The exhibition given by Miss Jackson and Mr. Van Norman yesterday was good, Mr. Van Norman riding two horses with one foot on a chair on the back of each horse, while Miss Jackson rode in the side saddle against him. Another event on the program yesterday was the exhibition in harness of Nelson, the great trotting stallion. Mr. C. H. Nelson, his owner, held the ribbons and trotted him a mile in 2:22, the fastest mile made on the track this season and within three-quarters of a second of the track record. The following is the summary of the races yesterday.

Free-for-all pace, purse, $240—Dan D, 1, 3, 1, 1; Ivorene, 4, 1, 4, 4; Daisy C, 2, 2, 2, 2; Mary Centlivry, 3, 4, 3, 3. Time, 2:24¼, 2:28¼, 2:25¼, 2:30¼.

Mile running race (two in three), purse, $200—Nettie Johnson, 1, 1; Moorfield, 2, 2; Cartoon, 3, 3. Time, 1:52, 1:54¼.

To-day is the last day of the fair and the races were:

Free-for-all trot, purse $250—S. N. Clemens, Colon, Mich., g. s. Silver Cloud; Ray Warner, Coldwater, Mich., r. s. Decorator; A. Teeple, Napoleon, O., br. g. Elmer; G. G. Robens, Grand Rapids, blk. g. Ketch; Rockhill Bros. & Fleming, Fort Wayne, b. m. Lorna Doone.

In Nelson's two exhibition trots yesterday he made the following time by quarters: First heat—First quarter, 3:4¼; one-half mile, 1:10¼; three-quarter mile, 1:45; one mile, 2:22. Second heat—First quarter, 3:5¼; one-half mile run, 1:13¼; three-fourth mile, 1:48¼; one mile, 2:23.

"Hold Me"—Sudden Death.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—A peculiar case of death from heart disease occurred here at a horse sale. One of the horses, while being speeded, ran away and dashed into the crowd. Mr. John Miller, a bystander, suddenly exclaimed, "Hold me!" and expired instantly. He was seventy years of age, and a resident of this city.

Canadian Wheat Crop.

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—Bearish reports continue to come from Winnipeg and the northwest indicating that the wheat crop has suffered serious damage by rain and frost. No. 1, estimated to yield 10,000,000 bushels, will not exceed 1,000,000 bushels, while the remainder of the crop, estimated at 9,000,000, will not grade above 3,000,000 or 4,000,000 bushels.

Manslaughter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A verdict of manslaughter in the second degree was returned by the jury in the Queens county court yesterday against John Melville Bassett, who was tried for performing a criminal operation on Miss Tessie Covert, which resulted in her death. Bassett will be sentenced to-day.

Dorsey Renominated.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Telegrams have been received here announcing the renomination for congress of Representative George W. E. Dorsey, of Nebraska. Mr. Dorsey has represented the Third district of his state for three terms, and another election will give him eight years of service. The nomination was made on the first ballot.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

Several Buildings Struck at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 19.—Yesterday a heavy rainstorm, accompanied by lightning, visited this section. Many cellars in this city were flooded, and the damage to goods stored in the basements of those houses will be considerable. The large volume of water on the streets caused a suspension of travel for over an hour. Several buildings were struck by lightning and three persons were severely hurt.

There may be persons in this community who are at times troubled with colic, or subject to attacks of bowel complaint. If so, they should try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It will afford almost immediate relief, and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. If taken as soon as the first indication of the disease is felt it will ward off the attack. Many people use it in this way and find that it never fails them. A 25 cent or 50 cent bottle may be obtained from druggists.

James T. Gott, Carmi, Ill., Says:

He paid thirty-one dollars doctor's bill for his wife in one year, and one bottle of Bradfield's Female Regulator did her more good than all the medicine she had taken before.

Nearly $600,000 Paid by Members of one Family for Insurance in the Mutual.—The Most Stupendous Transaction Known in the History of Insurance.—"It has Never Been Done Before; It Never Will Be Done Again."

Pay to the order of L. C. HOPKINS, Genl Executive Agent

Five hundred and Seventy Eight Thousand, Three Hundred and Forty Five —— DOLLARS.

E. C. POTTER & CO.

—E. C. POTTER & CO.—

The above check was received by the Mutual Life Ins. Co. of New York, for Insurance effected upon the lives of five members of the illustrious Havemeyer family of the City of New York. The Policies selected were the 10 year guarantee contracts of the Mutual Life's with the annuity feature added. Each policy was for the sum of $100,000 and the insured chose to make but one payment, thus commuting the cost. The insurance covered by the above mentioned premium payment of $578,345.00 was upon the lives of Mr. Theo. A. Havemeyer, the well known Merchant of this City, and Four members of his family. Mr. Theo. Havemeyer, is the Austrian Counsel General and a Gentleman of wide influence and of great business sagacity. Mr. E. C. Potter, whose signature is appended to the check, is the son-in-law of Mr. Havemeyer, and is one of the most prominent of bankers and brokers operating upon the stock exchange. There are two significant points for consideration in connection with this Insurance.

First, that the Messrs Havemeyer seeking a profitable and safe investment of a vast fund, selected Life Insurance as offering more advantages and greater security than any other form of investment. Second That they had such faith in the management and stability of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, that they willingly entrusted to its care nearly $600,000 in cash without any security whatever, and only the PROMISE of the company to pay.

The particulars of the life insurance contracted for by the family of Mr. Theo. A. Havemeyer, with the MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, by which that institution received a single premium payment of $578,345.00, will excite wonderment and surprise in the world of underwriting, and set the general public to thinking of the possibilities of life insurance as an investment.

The idea of a party with six hundred thousand dollars of spare cash on hand, putting it all into life insurance.

Why didn't they build houses or purchase stocks, or do a dozen other things with it? Life insurance for an investment! That's all very well, some people think, if you must do it. But here are five members of one family engaged in merchantile pursuits, fully alive to the value of every financial scheme of importance in this or any other country, who after examining every tempting investment, came to the conclusion that the safest, most profitable and altogether desirable one, is that offered by the MUTUAL LIFE.

Then think of the fact that all this money, far exceeding half a million dollars, is placed in the hands of the company without other security than its promise to pay. If that is'nt an evidence of confidence, what could be?

IT'S THE LARGEST, STRONGEST AND BEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WORLD. Its assets are thirty millions greater than those of any other American Life Insurance company. Over eighty millions greater than those of any life office in Great Britain, and sixty millions greater than the entire funds of the bank of England, which is the largest banking institution in the world.

The Mutual Life Issues Every Desirable Form of Policy.

DELICIOUS. THE FAMOUS COCOA OF EUROPE.——THE COMING ONE OF AMERICA. MADE INSTANTLY.

VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA

are household words all over Europe. Now that the manufacturers are drawing the attention of the American public to this first and, ever since its invention, the best of all cocoas, it will soon be appreciated here as well as elsewhere all over the world. All that the manufacturers request is simply one trial or still better a comparative test with whatever other cocoa it may be; then VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA itself will convince every one of its great superiority in strength, flavor and economy.

The English high-class paper Health says: "None of the numerous cocoas have as yet equalled this inventor's in solubility, agreeable taste and nutritive qualities." It is a strengthener of the nerves, and a refreshing beverage.—Superior to tea and coffee and having no injurious effects. Ask for Van Houten's and take no other. 60

Hat Tips!

If you have a thought inside of your head that you want a new HAT outside of your head, the place to materialize your notion elegantly and economically is in our HAT DEPARTMENT.

Perhaps you buy your hats of us now; if not, it's time you began. You will never know how much you have missed—how much you have lost—until you see the sort of DERBY HATS we sell for $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. Dealers wonder how we do it; its simple enough, though. Between buying a few dozen hats of a jobber—that's how most dealers supply themselves—and buying many dozens of CASES direct from the manufacturer, with all the cash discounts off, means a saving of fully twenty-five per cent.; and then, you know, we don't expect to make enough on one hat to pay our rent. Our competitors would have you believe that we sell hats below cost as a lot; we don't, that is not below OUR COST.

Did you know that we were offering some great bargains in Boys HATS, Boy's and Girls Fancy Caps and the latest novelties in Children's wear from a low priced Hat or Cap at twenty five cents to the very best that is made.

If you have never visited our Hat department you can not well form an idea of the extent of our stock, the vast variety we display and above all the very low price with which we are willing to part with them.
